The Parties shall use their best efforts to endeavor to correct such nullity or unenforceability so that such correction respects the purpose of the provision in question, as well as the other provisions of the Contract, as far as possible.

5. INTERPRETATION AND HIERARCHY.

5.1. All issues under this Annex I shall be governed by the terms under its sections, and, in a complementary manner, by the terms under the General Part of the General Contract Conditions.

6. COMMUNICATIONS.

The communications shall take place according to the text under the General Part of these General Contract Conditions.

7. FINANCIAL CONDITIONS.

7.1. Prices.

7.1.1. In case of performance of any work or services, the Contract price shall be deemed as including all the direct and indirect expenses that are necessary for the performance of the contracted scope, including, but not limited to, unless expressly agreed upon otherwise, costs and/or expenses with:

- Direct and indirect labor.
- Machinery and related staffing.
- Machinery amortization.

- Permanent and consumable materials.
- Transport of people, materials and means, to and from the work site.
- Installation and authorization of services.
- Maintenance costs.
- General costs and industrial benefits.
- Taxes, fees, contributions, and any other duties applicable or that may apply to the contracted scope, and the relevant invoice(s),
- Expenses regarding programming, acknowledgement and tests, material control, execution control, checks, receipts and other analysis, which shall be borne by the Contractor.
- Complete execution of all units of the contracted scope according to the Technical Specifications and other contractual documents.
- Construction, demolition, and removal of works, surveillance or storage auxiliary facilities, and those carried out in compliance with the Standard for Prevention of Risks of Work Related Accidents.
- Expenses relative to any financial guarantee, insurance or any other guarantees, as applicable.

7.1.2. Prices shall be divided (e.g., prices for services, prices for materials and taxes payable), according to the provisions of the applicable legislation.

7.1.3. The Contractor shall be responsible for any additional costs resulting from the Contractor's failure to comply with the contracted conditions, including, but not limited to, the conditions of delivery and shipment, such as freights, shipments and/or other expenses.

7.1.4. There shall be no payment for materials, equipment and/or services not included in the Contract, except upon presentation of the price for the additional materials, equipment and/or services by the Contractor, and if previously accepted, in writing, by ENEL.

7.1.5. The estimated quantities of the services provided for under the Contract and the Annexes thereto may be extended, modified, reduced or cancelled by ENEL during the course of the Contract

7.1.6. The Contractor undertakes to accept increases, modifications and reductions to the scope agreed upon in the Contract, maintaining the agreed prices, provided that such increases, modifications and reductions, together, do not represent an increase or reduction of over twenty percent (20%) of the Contract value. In this event, the new time for delivery shall be mutually agreed by both Parties, by means of a detailed and grounded proposal issued by the Contractor.

7.1.7. In case the increases, modifications and reductions proposed by ENEL, duly motivated, represent, together, an increase or reduction higher than twenty percent (20%) the Contract value, the Contractor may accept or refuse them; however, in case they are refused, ENEL shall be entitled to terminate the Contract, without giving rise to any indemnity right to the Contractor.

7.1.8. In case it is necessary to carry out a work unit not foreseen under the Contract prices table, the related price shall be defined between ENEL and the Contractor, according to the motivated proposal, based on the costs breakdown of other similar units to which there is a per unit price.

7.1.9. The negotiation of the price being discussed shall be carried out regardless of the execution of such unit, and the Contractor shall be bound to execute it after the receipt of the order from ENEL.

7.1.10. When it is not possible to set a negotiated price or in cases where ENEL deems necessary, the price shall be set according to the tables that the Contractor shall include in its proposal, which shall include terms of equal content to the ones set forth under clause 7.1.1.

7.1.11. The execution of works by management shall be performed by means of previous written execution order by ENEL.

7.1.12. Staffing costs shall include tools required according to staff expertise areas, as well as equipment required for protection, safety and proper execution of works.

7.1.13. Incidental costs to the scope of transportation, per diem rates or staffing maintenance by the Contractor shall not be accepted.

7.2. Modification to prices.

Prices are considered fixed and non-adjustable, unless expressly stated otherwise in the Contract. Any changes in prices or contractual adjustments shall only be allowed to be made if provided under the Contract. When the Contract provides for any adjustment, it shall take place annually, based on one hundred percent (100%) of the variation of the official index as chosen in the Contract, calculated in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the month of adjustment, or one hundred percent (100%) of the variation of the official index that replaces it, formalized by means of a Letter to be issued by ENEL. Therefore, the Contract shall detail the values of the relevant indexes and corresponding adjustment formulas, if any.

7.3. Invoicing.

7.3.1. The invoices (or "bills of sale") shall be complemented by the related document supporting the registration of the Contractor with the INSS (National Institute of Social Security) specifically to the activities related to this Contract subject matter, by the document supporting the registration of the Contractor with the municipality where the ISS (Services Tax) charge is applicable, as well as relevant evidence of collection and/or payment of the corresponding tax and/or social security liabilities.

7.3.2. In addition, the invoices shall include:

- Order or Contract number;
- Any tax levied on the operation, such as: ISS (tax on services); IPI (tax on industrialized products) and ICMS (tax on circulation of goods), in case of acquisition of materials;
- Due date;
- Specification of services and/or materials acquired by means of their respective identifiers;
- Name and number of CNPJ (Brazilian National Register of Legal Entities) of the ENEL Group Company performing the purchase and/or receiving the services;
- Value per unit of the services, materials or items of equipment;
- Total value of the services, materials or equipment;
- Specification of all tax deductions and withholding taxes.

In case ENEL identifies any mistakes, flaws or discrepancies in the invoices or bills of sale, as well as any failure to comply with legal and contractual liabilities by the Contractor, payment shall be interrupted, being performed only within thirty (30) days after the Contractor remedies the situation.

7.3.3. The invoice reviewed by the Contractor shall have the same term for payment, as from the date of receipt thereof, as well as the invoice originally sent.

7.3.4. ENEL shall not be responsible for any financial or bank expenses necessary to issue the invoices.

7.3.5. Under no circumstances shall the Contractor or its subcontractors be authorized to issue any securities against ENEL or against any other entity belonging to ENEL Group, and the Contractor shall be responsible for bearing all expenses, losses and damages resulting from the breach of the provisions of this clause.

In the same invoice, the following items shall be separated:

- a. Any works contracted by management as a complement to the Contract.
- b. Any increase already billed through the application of adjustment formulas provided for under the Contract. In this case, it is necessary to include justifications related to the value of indexes applied, as well as details of the relevant adjustment formula.

7.3.6. Payments to any companies, whether national or foreigner, providing services or materials involving any kind of transfer of technology, or know-how, or technical assistance, or any other type of service/supply requiring any specific registration, shall be subject to the specific proceedings set forth under the Contract and the law, the Contractor being aware that it may involve procedures within official bodies, such as, for example, the National Institute of Industrial Property (INPI – Instituto Nacional da Propriedade Industrial) or the Central Bank of Brazil (BACEN – Banco Central do Brasil).

7.3.7. In case it is necessary to perform the registration with such official bodies, the Contractor shall only be allowed to issue the mentioned invoice/bill of sale after such official bodies have published the approval of the application for registration.

7.3.8. In case the procedures referred to above cause any delay that is not due to the sole fault of the party responsible for the registration thereof, the resulting delay on invoicing and payment shall not be attributed to ENEL, and shall not give rise to the accrual of any interests, updating or monetary adjustment.

7.3.9. It is hereby agreed that, in case any invoice is issued without following the procedure above, ENEL shall not be bound to pay it, and the Contractor shall cancel the invoice issued by mistake, and replace it with a new one, according to the procedure described in this clause, bearing all incurred costs, including those related to taxes, which may be payable by reason of cancellation of the invoice issued in breach of the provisions in this clause, as well as in relation to the issue of the new invoice as replacement.

7.4. Payment conditions.

7.4.1. The invoices shall be paid within the period set forth under the Contract, after ENEL's analysis and previous approval of the fulfillment of the contractual conditions; in case the term for payment is not expressly specified in the Contract, it shall be first day of massive payment after ninety (90) calendar days as from the date of registration of the Invoice by ENEL, or the invoice date of approval, if later than the registration date.

7.4.2. The import invoices shall follow customs rules, and particularly the provisions under the Federal Revenue Service (Ministry of Finance) decree nº 6759/09, art. 557.

7.4.3. All payments made prior to the Temporary Receipt, pursuant to the provisions of the Contract, shall be considered advance payments of the final price. In case where a financial guarantee for the fulfillment of this Contract is not provided, ENEL shall withhold ten percent (10%) of the Contractor's invoicing, according to item 19 of this Annex.

7.4.4. In the event any errors, failures or divergences in the collection documents are found, the payment period shall only be counted as from the date of resubmission, by the Contractor, of the relevant accurate and orderly bills of sale/invoices, without the application of interest, updating, and monetary adjustments.

7.5. Electronic invoicing.

Without prejudice to the billing and to the payment conditions set forth under the previous items, the Contractor may use an electronic billing system, provided that ENEL has such system. If the Contractor chooses to use the electronic billing system, it shall keep it throughout the term of the Contract, or whenever such system is operational.

8. TAXES.

The taxes levied on the subject matter of the Contract shall be applicable under the terms of the legislation in force and at the time of the taxable event that has given rise to the tax liability. In the event of any changes to the tax legislation, the information contained in the tax document shall be altered in order to comply with the legislation in force at the time.

All taxes levied or that may be levied on the subject matter of the Contract shall be paid by the relevant taxpayer or person responsible for it, pursuant to the tax legislation, and the Party responsible for the payment of a certain tax shall keep the other free of any responsibilities, demands and actions of any nature in relation to said tax.

The taxes, when subject to any withholding, shall be withheld in accordance with the law, so that the payments to be made to the Contractor are always effected at its net value.

If, during the term of the Contract, any new Taxes are created or there is any change to the tax legislation that materially changes the tax burden of the Contract (for more or less), the value of the Contract, as the case may be, shall be adjusted proportionally, by means of an amendment thereto detailing the corresponding change.

Upon the occurrence of any changes to the tax legislation, the information contained in the tax documents issued as a result of the contracts shall be altered in order to adjust to the legislation in force at the time.

8.1. Taxes applicable to imports and other customs expenses.

8.1.1 The Contractor shall be solely responsible for the payment of all taxes and any other charges, existing taxes or fees, both in Brazil or abroad, if any, resulting from the Contract, which shall be duly included in the Contract price.

8.1.2 The only exception to the previous paragraph shall be the Brazilian taxes described in the following sub-items (i), (ii) and (iii), considering that, according to Brazilian legislation, ENEL is the legal taxpayer and shall pay taxes directly and bear the costs of the relevant payment thereof:

(i) Importation of services.

The following Brazilian taxes on the import of services shall be borne by ENEL: ISS, PIS, Cofins, CIDE and IOF. Withholding tax (IRRF) shall be withheld by ENEL and deducted from the amount to be paid to the Contractor.

(ii) Imports of equipment of foreign origin.

The following Brazilian taxes on imports of equipment of foreign origin shall be borne by ENEL (not included in this concept: customs and other import expenses): II, IPI, PIS, Cofins, ICMS and AFRMM.

(iii) Local purchase of products.

The differential of ICMS tax rate on the delivery of goods by any national company shall be borne by ENEL. Therefore, the Brazilian taxes described in sub-items (i), (ii) and (iii) above shall be borne by ENEL and shall not be included in the Contract price.

8.2. Taxes applicable to purchases of goods and services rendered in Brazil.

8.2.1 In the case of supply of goods and performance of services by any Brazilian company, the Contractor shall be responsible for payment of all taxes due, in accordance with current legislation, except for the differential of the ICMS interstate rate, which shall be borne by ENEL. In this case, all applicable taxes shall be established in the Contract to quantify the total price: ICMS, ISS, PIS, Cofins and IPI.

8.2.2. Taxes, when subject to withholding, shall be withheld in accordance with the law, so that payments to be made to the Contractor will always be made at their net value.

8.3. Compliance with tax obligations and benefits.

8.3.1. The Parties agree to comply with all obligations, to handle and provide all documentation necessary for the proper payment of taxes, including withholding and other legal obligations that apply to the Contract, following all procedures established in the applicable Law.

8.3.2. Likewise, the Parties agree to cooperate in obtaining tax exemptions or other applicable tax benefits. If ENEL loses the right to any tax benefit due to the action, omission, lack of diligence or any other cause imputable to the Contractor, ENEL may offset the amount of the unused tax benefit from any amount due to the Contractor.

8.3.3. If, at any time, ENEL or the Contractor benefits from any tax benefits that imply any reductions, or tax exemptions, or, in case there is the extinction of the taxes, such events shall be informed to the other Party and shall imply proportionally in the readjustment of the value of the Contract, by means of an amendment to the Contract detailing the impact of the corresponding reduction.

9. PERFORMANCE

9.1. Introduction.

9.1.1. The Contractor represents and warrants that:

a) It is fully aware and has full domain of the services set forth under the Contract, the place where they will be provided, the border regions and access routes, and all other factors and conditions that may influence the cost and term of performance, being exclusively responsible for all the complementary investigations that it deems necessary.

- Pursuant to the foregoing, the Contractor shall not be entitled to any complaint, indemnity, claim for additional payment, or for the characterization of any extraordinary service, including to justify delays or extend contractual deadlines, due to alleged design errors, due to difficulties or inconvenience of any kind in relation to the conditions existing at the place of service performance, namely geological, meteorological, environmental and safety conditions.

b) It holds the professional documentation issued by the relevant authority that enables it to exercise the activity it develops, and that its company has all the necessary registrations, authorizations and licenses that are necessary from the competent bodies for its operation and performance of the object of the Contract, which, as stated hereby, are covered by its corporate object, undertaking to maintain such registrations, authorizations and licenses in force during the term of the Contract.

9.1.1.1 ENEL undertakes to provide, upon request of the Contractor, all technical data and documents under its responsibility, when available and indispensable for the performance of the activities contemplated under the Contract. If the data provided by ENEL is insufficient or incomplete, the Contractor undertake to request the missing information in a timely manner.

9.1.1.2 If the Contractor find any error, omission or discrepancy in the projects, drawings and technical specifications provided to it, it shall communicate ENEL in writing to that effect, detailing everything that needs to be corrected.

9.1.2 For the execution of services related to the works, as well as for the acquisition of materials required to the performance thereof, the provisions of these Global General Conditions, the General Part and the Contract shall be fully complied with, particularly the recommendations of the Brazilian Technical Standards Association (ABNT – Associação Brasileira de Normas Técnicas), with the strict fulfillment of the laws and requirements of federal, state and municipal authorities, releasing ENEL from any responsibility in case the Contractor fails to fulfill any legal requirements.

9.1.3 The Contractor shall place, on a visible site at the work site, a sign of the company informing the name of the Technical Manager and his/her registration number in CREA (Regional Council of Engineering, Architecture and Agronomy).

9.1.4 The Contractor shall provide the registration of Annotation of Technical Responsibility (ART – Anotação de Responsabilidade Técnica) related to the works and/or services under the Contract, in the CREA of the region where such works and/or services shall be carried out, according to the terms of the applicable legislation, and send a copy of this document to ENEL prior to the beginning of the performance of the Contract.

9.1.5 The Contractor shall request to ENEL, in due course and in advance, licenses under its sole, exclusive and direct responsibility, so that the performance of the works or services is not affected and the commencement of the services/machinery operation is not prevented, the costs necessary to obtain these licenses being the Contractor's responsibility.

9.1.6 If such request is not performed in due time and according to the aforementioned paragraph, the Contractor shall be subject to the sanctions set forth under the Contract, as well as shall be liable for any resulting damages that may be caused, whether directly or indirectly, to ENEL.

9.1.7 The Contractor shall keep accurate and updated records of all costs, expenses, financial transactions, and duties related to the performance of the works and services and the acquisition of materials required to the performance of the Contract.

9.1.8 For audit purposes, the records mentioned in this item shall be made available to ENEL, or those appointed by ENEL, during working time at the Contractor's offices.

9.1.9 The Contractor shall register with the relevant authorities all equipment used in the performance of the services, if legally required, particularly, but not limited to, in relation to the environment, the Contractor being solely responsible for all damages and losses caused to ENEL.

9.1.10 The Contractor shall provide its employees, at its sole and exclusive responsibility, with all Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and Collective Protective Equipment (CPE) of compulsory use, pursuant to current legislation, used in the performance of the Contract.

9.2 Inspections, checks and tests.

9.2.1 ENEL may inspect the materials and equipment under the Contract at any time of manufacture thereof, as well as inspect the performance of the contractual works and services, including any materials the Contractor may use for such services. This inspection may be carried out by ENEL's own staff or by individuals or entities assigned by it, at the Contractor's worksites, offices, factories, workshop or warehouses, as well as of its subcontractors. For such purpose, ENEL's inspectors shall have free access to the referred facilities, and shall make the access easier whenever necessary.

9.2.1.1 The Contractor shall facilitate ENEL's action in the monitoring and supervision of all phases of the services, providing all the collaboration that is necessary, and allowing free access to the documentation and reports pertaining to the object of the Contract, to its plants, workshops or facilities.

9.2.2 Without prejudice to the provisions of the Contracts, the inspections, checks and tests shall be carried out respecting all the Program of Inspection Items developed by the Contractor and approved by ENEL.

9.3 Quality control.

9.3.1 The quality control includes a set of actions, activities and techniques required to provide enough confidence that the material, equipment, work or service under the Contract will satisfactorily meet the conditions required by ENEL and, as the case may be, by the applicable technical standards.

9.3.2 The Contractor shall be the sole responsible for the quality control, regardless of controls and checks carried out or required by ENEL, whether directly or through any third party. These tests, controls and checks shall not release the Contractor from its exclusive responsibility.

9.3.3 Prior to starting the manufacture process, or the performance of contracted works or services, the Contractor shall provide, upon ENEL's request and approval, a Quality Control Plan (in compliance with ISO 10.005 or equivalent), which shall include the Program of Inspection Items, as well as the list of applicable operations and procedures.

9.3.4 Once the referred Quality Control Plan is submitted, ENEL may object to it within fifteen (15) business days, always providing justifiable reasons, and the Contractor shall undertake to change it with due diligence, making the appropriate corrections in accordance with the objections raised by ENEL.

9.3.5 During the performance of the Contract, the Contractor shall carry out the activities in the most strict and rigorous manner as defined in its Quality Control System and in the Quality Control Plan approved by ENEL. In any event, ENEL reserves the right to carry out the audits and/or inspections that are necessary to evidence the fulfillment hereof.

9.3.6 When completing the performance of the Contract, the Contractor shall submit to ENEL's approval a final Quality Control report, the contents of which shall be consistent with the provisions of the Contract and of the approved Quality Control Plan.

9.3.7 ENEL may require the Contractor to apply for registration in a Notary Public the technical documentation necessary to manufacture materials and equipment under the Contract. This documentation shall be available to ENEL, which may use it in case ENEL intends to discontinue or remove any product from the catalogue, or in cases of insolvency of the Contractor or of its subcontractors or suppliers.

9.3.8 Without prejudice to the provisions of the General Part of these General Contract Conditions, in case the Contractor fails to comply with the quality standards required for each kind of service or supply, ENEL may, at its sole discretion, demands the performance by the Contractor, at the Contractor's sole expense, of an action plan, which shall be previously approved by ENEL, in order to meet the quality standards, under the penalties provided for in the Contract and/or termination of the contract, the Contractor not being entitled to any indemnification whatsoever. This case shall not be considered a novation of the obligations initially contracted, but rather, liberality on the part of ENEL to mitigate the damages and/or losses that may arise from the Contractor's failure to comply therewith. ENEL may, also at its sole discretion, depending on the severity and extension of the failure to comply with the safety and/or quality standards, decide to immediately terminate the contract, the Contractor not being entitled to any indemnification whatsoever.

9.3.9 Under no circumstances, shall the fulfillment of these quality control conditions release the Contractor from responsibility and/or any penalties for the incorrect performance of the Contract, as well as the adoption of the applicable measures by ENEL due to any losses and damages resulting therefrom.

9.4 Delivery and receipt conditions.

9.4.1 General.

9.4.1. In case the Contract fails to provide for any specific expiration date and defines only the term for performance or delivery, this term shall count as from the execution of the Contract or the as from the date of issuance of the Letter of Intent or Proceed Order.

9.4.2 If ENEL finds, at any time, that the progress of the work will not allow for completion within the period provided for in the Contract, due to any actions or omissions not attributable to ENEL, it may require, and the Contractor undertakes to comply with, the use of the necessary remedies in order to eliminate the delay and allow for completion of the services on the due date, without this implying any change to the value of the Contract, nor any additional burden to ENEL, subject to the other provisions of the Contract.

9.4.2 Materials and/or equipment.

9.4.2.1 At each delivery, the Contractor shall also send all the final technical documentation, as well as protocols and tests set forth under the Specifications, under the Contract and, as the case may be, under the relevant Technical Standards.

9.4.2.2 In addition to the aforementioned documentation, the Contractor shall certify, in case it is required by ENEL, that the drawing, raw materials, materials and brands and types of components are identical to those that resulted in the approval, if the case may be.

9.4.2.3 In order to carry out the delivery, the Contractor shall send to ENEL, at the attention of its contact person or person in charge of the receipt appointed in the Contract, in good time, the Shipping Notification including the following information:

- Contract reference number.
- Number of volumes sent, informing the material they hold. In case these are the last volumes contracted, it shall be expressly informed.
- Data related to the means of transportation used and/or the transporting company, including the information and telephone of the contact person.
- Date and place where the equipment or materials are made available.

Likewise, the Contractor undertakes to immediately communicate ENEL of any circumstances that change the delivery conditions agreed upon.

9.4.2.4 Unless expressed otherwise, regarding materials or equipment subject to quality control, the Contractor shall not send them unless it has the compulsory Shipment Authorization, subsequent to the Protocol Receipt or the Receipt in Origin issued by ENEL, pursuant to the definitions set forth in this document. Items supplied under a Quality Agreement system shall be excluded from this requirement. However, in case the Contractor proceeds with the shipment, all resulting expenses shall be under its responsibility.

9.4.2.5 Unless otherwise provided for under the Contract, the delivery of materials and equipment shall be performed in the DDP modality (Incoterms CCI 2010) at the place of destination defined in the Contract. The terms related to delivery, ownership, insurance, etc., shall be constructed in compliance with Incoterm, except where it conflicts with the provisions of the Contract.

9.4.2.6 Without prejudice to considering the delivery date complied with, ENEL reserves the right to postpone any shipment or dispatch of materials or equipment. The Contractor shall bear storage and insurance expenses for a period of up to thirty (30) days following the new delivery date agreed upon. In case the postponement lasts for a longer period, compensations resulting from additional storage and insurance expenses shall be defined by means of mutual agreement by and between the Parties.

10.3 Assignment of Contract shall mean all Contractor's agreement to transfer to third parties all rights and obligations resulting from the Contract, and the assignment and/or subcontracting may only be performed if previously authorized by ENEL, according to the terms of the Contract and the relevant Contractual Documentation.

10.4 Under no circumstances shall there be any contractual relationship between the Contractor's assignees or subcontractors and ENEL, the Contractor always remaining responsible for all activities of such subcontractors or assignees, and for the fulfillment of contractual, legal and tax liabilities resulting from the performance of its work; including, but not limited to, any obligations arising from labor related accidents and of any other nature, as well as labor and social security charges, as well as for damages and losses caused to ENEL by any subcontractors or assignees, their agents, advisors and workers.

10.8 According to the provisions above, ENEL may, at any time, inspect and monitor the works or manufacturing carried out by the assignee or subcontractor, and the fulfillment of their obligations. The subcontractor or assignee shall provide ENEL with all collaboration required (documents, reports, free access to their factories, workshops or facilities, etc.).

10.9 ENEL reserves the right to reject subcontractors or assignees who, as work progresses, ENEL considers as not appropriate to maintain, without the need to indemnify the Contractor.

12.7 Be solely and exclusively responsible, without any right of recourse, for any and all loss and damage that the materials supplied may cause to their final recipients, as well as any problems arising from the provision of services or works performed, giving ENEL the right to withhold payments due to the Contractor for such loss and damage.

12.8 The Contractor's delay in correcting failures to the services, or replacing materials that are defective, shall allow ENEL to make such modifications as it deems appropriate by debiting the costs arising therefrom or by offsetting them from future payments due to the Contractor or by using any other reasonable remedies to collect such amounts.

12.8.1. The Contractor shall replace all materials supplied or paid for by it which are defective in series, and shall present and justify the solution adopted so that such defects do not occur in the rest of the materials and/or equipment still pending delivery. 12.8.2 Replace, in two (2) business days or in any other period set forth in the Contract, the materials and equipment that are not in accordance with the agreed and required conditions, are inadequate, or of poor quality. These materials and/or equipment may remain in ENEL's possession until they are replaced by the Contractor, and ENEL shall have the right to use the rejected material and/or equipment until such time as the Contractor supplies the new one.

12.13. The performance of modifications to the services under the Contract that are not authorized, agreed or specified in the Contract, Amendments, and Annexes thereto, and to the rules for construction, installation and maintenance services, authorizes ENEL to reject the service that has been modified or improperly performed and order its demolition or removal and new construction, maintenance or rework of the service by the Contractor or by third parties (provided they are approved by ENEL), at the Contractor's expense, without prejudice to the possibility of applying the penalties provided for in the Contract and its annexes, or adopting appropriate measures for the application of losses and damages arising therefrom, plus court costs, interest and monetary adjustment.

12.16. Settle, in a timely manner, any and all commitments that may be made to third parties, including Subcontractors, in order to prevent such commitments from constituting liens or encumbrances of any nature on the services, in which case it shall be fully responsible for the reimbursement of any damages caused to ENEL.

12.17. Provide and maintain vigilance for the protection and safety of the place where the services are provided until compliance with the contracted object is verified, without prejudice to any vigilance that ENEL may exercise, it being understood that the vigilance to be performed by the Contractor will not lead to any regulatory state power or allow the use of firearms.

12.18. Provide, promptly, the release of any service fronts, avoiding delay in the performance of services, as well as take responsibility for any increase in contracted costs, when, by valid determination of the competent authority, the services or works are embargoed or have their performance suspended, for reasons attributable exclusively to the Contractor, its Subcontractors or agents.

12.21. The Contractor is fully responsible for observing and fulfilling all that is necessary to perform the contractual services and, in any event, for everything that is indicated as its responsibility in the Contract, in particular, for the following: use specialized professionals in sufficient numbers to satisfy the needs of the services within the period agreed in the Contract, according to the qualification and specifications provided in the Contract and its Annexes, including obtaining and bearing the costs corresponding to all licenses, certificates and permissions that are specifically and expressly under the responsibility of the Contractor, as set forth in the Contract to Annexes, or as defined by laws, rules/regulations.

The Contractor shall have an adequate place for the storage of materials, tools and equipment, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Contract and/or the annexes hereto.

12.22.1. ENEL shall be released from any responsibility for thefts occurred at the site or in the transfer process, the Contractor being liable for any losses and damages caused to the materials, tools and equipment as a result of its respective custody, storage and maintenance, from removal until return thereof.

12.22.2. 13. CONTRACTOR'S RESPONSABILITIES.

13.1. Contractor shall be responsible, civilly and criminally, directly or indirectly, solely and exclusively, for all liabilities, losses and damages, indemnities, fines, judicial convictions, administrative convictions, and any other expenses incurred, which arise from any actions and/or omissions, whether willful or negligent, on its own behalf and on behalf of its professionals, agents, contractors and/or subcontractors, as a result of the performance of the object of the Contract, caused to ENEL, its employees, third parties or the environment, releasing ENEL from any and all liability in this regard, giving ENEL the right to withhold any payment due to the Contractor for all the expenses and costs incurred.

13.2 If any judicial or extrajudicial dispute is initiated, as well as any acts of administrative authorities against ENEL, as a result of the performance of the Contract and therefore due to the responsibility of the Contractor, whether directly or indirectly, or a dispute is initiated due to any action or omission of the Contractor or its subcontractors, it shall have the right to withhold from any outstanding payments or existing guarantees an amount equivalent to that being claimed, including social security contributions and income tax, and shall return them to the Contractor, with appropriate adjustments, after a judgment or decision without the possibility of any appeal declaring the fact unfounded or determining the exclusion of ENEL from the list of defendants. In this case, the Contractor shall also reimburse ENEL for the fees paid to its attorneys, especially in the preparation of petitions and travel to hearings, and by its representatives, in addition to the judicial and administrative costs and the cost incurred to produce evidence, serving as the basis for the reimbursement agreed herein the remuneration of the lawyer and of ENEL's representative, except in cases of default or loss of procedural deadlines by ENEL, without prejudice to any action for reimbursement.

13.3 If the Contractor is a Consortium, the Contractor shall be responsible and guarantee that it has been set up in accordance with the standards required by ENEL and that it meets the requirements set out in articles 278 and 279 of Law Nº 6404/76, as amended, the instrument of incorporation of which is valid for at least the same or, preferably, longer than six (6) months as compared to the term of the Contract, being therefore legally capable of complying with the obligations taken under the Contract until ENEL formalizes the discharge of the obligations assumed, under penalty of application of sanctions and even termination of the Contract.

13.4 The Parties agree that, if the Contractor is a Consortium, the contracted Consortium Members shall be jointly liable to ENEL for all obligations undertaken, including, but not limited to, their respective obligations and tax credits related to their operations, as well as their respective labor and social security obligations.

13.5 The Parties agree that, even if the Contractor is a Consortium, each of the Consortium Members shall invoice directly to ENEL the amounts related to the services provided by it, respecting the proportions of its participation in the referred Consortium, as well as the terms and maturities established in the Contract and in the Annexes thereto.

13.6 The Parties agree that, regardless of the constitution of the Consortium, the breach of contract by the Contractor, the Consortium or any of the individual Consortium Members shall entitle ENEL, at its sole discretion, to terminate the Contract, by operation of law, without any right to compensation for the Contractor, the Consortium or any of the Consortium Members.

14. CONTRACTOR'S WARRANTY.

14.1 The Warranty Period for materials and equipment, as well as for the contracted works and services, shall extend throughout the period set forth in the Contract, and, if such period is not specified, for five (5) years in case of Civil Construction Works, and one (1) year for the other services and for the materials supplied, as from the execution of the Temporary Receipt Document. In case the Temporary Receipt Document is not signed, the period shall be counted as from ENEL's consenting with the material delivery or as from communication of completion of the contracted work or service, including delivery by the Contractor of the relevant documentation to ENEL, for the processing of the administrative authorization to start up the work, as the case may be. Such materials and equipment shall withstand any and all climatic conditions in the locations where they are installed.

14.1.1 The Warranty Period set forth in the item above considers, cumulatively, that: (i) all equipment and services provided shall be new, of adequate quality and shall be free from design faults, material defects and performance faults, whether such faults and defects are visible or hidden; (ii) all services shall be in strict compliance with all ENEL's Technical Specifications, as attached to the Contract, as well as any other stipulations of the Contract and Annexes; (iii) the contracted services and works shall be in compliance with all laws, technical standards, permits and Good Engineering and Construction Practices; and (iv) in the case of sending equipment and components for the correction of any problems by the Contractor, all costs, including transportation and the relevant insurance, shall be under its responsibility.

14.1.2 It shall be at the discretion of ENEL's supervision to challenge and have demolished or replaced services and supplies/facilities of equipment that are poorly performed or performed in disagreement with the projects and technical specifications. The expenses arising from these demolitions, replacements or re-performance of services shall be for the exclusive account of the Contractor.

14.1.3 The performance of the inspection, as well as any action taken in relation to this inspection as described in the above item, by the Contractor shall not release the Contractor of its responsibility for the services and materials under the Contract, and the Contractor shall remain responsible, therefore, for full compliance with all obligations undertaken.

14.2. If, upon expiration of the Warranty Period, ENEL's main facilities that are the object or part of the object of the Contract are not operational for at least six (6) months, the Warranty Period shall automatically be extended until the completion of such six (6) months, at least. If the materials or equipment provided by the Contractor are repaired or replaced, the initial warranty shall be deemed as interrupted, and the warranty period initially agreed upon shall be counted in full. Under no circumstances shall it result in any additional costs to ENEL.

14.3 Once the Warranty Period has expired and the Final Receipt has taken place, ENEL may, for its sole benefit, whether directly on its own or by means of third parties, freely change or modify the materials or equipment from under the Contract, or the constructions executed or facilities installed, including when they are protected by licenses, patents or other means of industrial property on behalf of the Contractor, always preserving the confidentiality as agreed upon.

15. PENALTIES.

15.1. Notwithstanding the provisions regarding Contract termination due to any reason attributable to the Contractor, in case the Contractor fails to meet delivery dates or performance terms, both partial and final, and in case of any other failure to comply with the provisions set forth in the Contract or in these General Conditions, ENEL shall apply a compensatory fine.

15.2. In case no other penalty for delay, breach, irregular, unsatisfactory or insufficient performance of any of the Contractor's obligations has been defined, there shall be a fine of 1.5% (one point five percent) of the Contract total price per week of delay during the first four weeks, and 4% (four percent) as from the fifth week, and in both cases it shall be calculated pro rata die (proportionally to the days elapsed).

15.3. In case, during the warranty period, ENEL is deprived from the disposal or use of the contracted materials or equipment, of the works or facilities installed, due to any defect, flaw, or damage, produced or detected on them, which are not attributable to ENEL, or, due to any deficiencies in the performance, any other work needs to be carried out to correct such deficiencies, in accordance with the Guaranteed Commitment, the Contractor shall suffer the penalty set forth under the Contract, and in case such penalty is not defined in the Contract, the Contractor shall suffer a fine for arrears of one tenth percent (0.1%) of the total Contract value per day of unavailability or impediment to use, notwithstanding the application of any other penalties provided for under the Contract, as well as collection for losses and damages and additional compensation.

15.4. In the event of failure to supply or supply of products with defects or in disagreement with the provisions of the Contract and the relevant conformity rules, the Contractor shall pay ENEL, as penalty of a non-compensatory nature, the full amount of the request for the Products which gave rise to the defaults, without prejudice to the obligation to reimburse ENEL for any and all losses and damages suffered and to supply or replace the product in accordance with what was requested.

15.5. The sum of penalties shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the total Contract value. In case it exceeds this limit, ENEL shall be entitled to terminate the Contract, without prejudice to the application of the penalty, according to the applicable legislation.

15.6. The collection of penalties shall not deprive ENEL of its option to transfer to the Contractor all the additional costs and expenses incurred and/or that it may be obliged to pay to third parties, as a direct result of the delay or breach produced by the Contractor. The application of the penalties provided shall not release the Contractor from proper fulfillment of the Contract in its totality, and the Contractor shall: (i) eliminate all technical deficiencies detected; (ii) pay the applicable penalties; (iii) remedy, at its own expenses, any deadlines not met, and replace materials and equipment, redo or repeat, as needed, any works or services under the Contract, upon ENEL's request.

15.7 The fine provided for in this clause does not include compensation to ENEL for any loss or damage that may be evidenced, under the terms of the law, as well as compensation for the expenses with procedural costs and attorneys' fees, if ENEL resorts to legal proceedings.

15.8. The procedure to collect any penalties resulting from the Contract shall be carried out according to the information in these items.

- a) ENEL shall communicate to the Contractor, in writing, by means of a notice, any penalty owed, detailing the breached item and the value thereof. The Contractor shall provide any evidence it finds adequate for its defense within fifteen (15) calendar days as from the date of receipt of the notice. If the notification is sent by electronic means, the date on which the e-mail was viewed or any response to the notification is received, whichever occurs first, shall be taken into account for the purposes of starting the period.
- b) The Contractor's silence and/or failure to provide a response will imply a waiver of its right to adversarial proceedings and full and fair hearing.
- c) After the aforementioned period, and in case the Contractor fails to provide any response, or if it does, ENEL rejects such arguments, the Contractor shall discount from its invoice the value corresponding to the penalty applied.
- d) In case such discount is not applied, the corresponding amount shall be executed from the guarantees provided, or collection shall be made by any other means under the Contract, the applicable legislation or these General Conditions, without prejudice to the indemnity for losses and damages that may occur on behalf of ENEL.
- e) Once the financial guarantee is executed, the Contractor shall replace it with the same amount as prior to the execution.

- f) While this replacement is not performed, ENEL shall withhold the residual amount resulting from the difference between the total guarantee amount and the penalty value.
- g) In case the initial guarantee amount is not enough to cover the value of the penalties, ENEL shall offset from any outstanding payments until reaching the sum necessary to cover the total penalty amount, and the guarantee replacement shall remain unchanged, as previously defined.

15.9 After the investigation of the breach and if the penalty is due, the Parties recognize as unquestionable all the fines and penalties applicable by virtue of the Contract, ENEL being authorized to discount such amounts directly from the credits due to the Contractor, the Contract being valid a judgment debt enforceable out of court, with the terms of art. 784, III, of the Code of Civil Procedure being applicable, without prejudice to the other withholding cases provided for in these General Conditions, the Contract and its Annexes.

16. SUSPENSION, WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION.

(I) SUSPENSION OF SERVICES

16.1 In addition to the provisions contained in these General Contract Conditions, the conditions of Suspension of Services listed below shall also apply:

16.1.1 The performance of the services may be suspended, totally or partially, in the following cases: a) by determination of the Government; and b) by any of the affected Parties, in the occurrence of acts of God or force majeure, as provided in Item Seventeen, which are evidenced to prevent the performance of the services or the supply of materials.

16.1.2 Regardless of the cases described above, ENEL may, at any time and at its sole discretion, instruct the Contractor to suspend, partially or totally, the services or the supply. During the suspension, the Contractor shall take all necessary measures to protect the services, works, materials and equipment against deterioration, loss or damage. It shall also, in the event of partial suspension, reallocate to other fronts within the site of the works or services, resources mobilised on the fronts suspended by ENEL. The Parties shall maintain, throughout suspension, all their responsibilities and obligations as set forth in the Contract.

16.1.3 If the services or supply are suspended by ENEL, without the occurrence of any fault on the part of the Contractor, the following shall be at the expense of ENEL: a) all costs and expenses directly incurred by the Contractor, provided they are previously approved and duly justified, in compliance with the instruction provided for in the Clause above; and b) payment for all services performed so far, as well as those the interruption of which is not demonstrably possible, which have not yet been paid under the Contract, to the extent of what has already been demonstrably performed, regardless of completion thereof.

(II) WITHDRAWAL

16.2. Regardless of the stipulation of the contractual term, ENEL shall have the right to withdraw from the Contract, at any time, regardless of the reason, upon prior and express notice addressed to the Contractor, at least thirty (30) days in advance or within the term defined in the Contract. The withdrawal shall not give rise to the Contracted Party of any indemnity rights, and ENEL shall only pay to the Contractor the value of the services effectively and demonstrably performed up to the date of withdrawal, and ENEL shall be entitled to the Services provided and the Goods already supplied, subject to the other limits and conditions provided in item 16.2 of the General Part of these General Contract Conditions.

(III) TERMINATION OF THE CONTRACT

16.3 Regardless of the possibility of applying a non-compensatory fine for breach of the contractual clauses and conditions, the Contract may be terminated by ENEL for breach or irregular compliance with any clause or condition of the Contract, if, after the Contractor being granted the right to be notified to, within fifteen (15) calendar days from the receipt of the notification, remedy the total or partial breach of the obligations thereunder, it fails to do it, or does it in an unsatisfactory manner. The Parties agree that this termination shall not give rise to any indemnity right for the Contractor, which will receive only and exclusively for the services provided and goods delivered or proven as contracted up to the moment of termination.

16.3.1 For the purposes of the provisions of the Contract, the following situations shall constitute, as a way of example, cases of total or partial breach of the Contract, without prejudice to any others that may exist:

- b) Delays, total or partial shutdown in the provision of the service under the Contract, unjustifiably;

- j) In case the sum of the value of the penalties applied to the Contractor exceeds 15% (fifteen percent) of the total/estimated value of the Contract.

16.3.2 The Contract may also be terminated in the event of failure to comply by the Contractor or any of its subcontractors with one or more requirements of current legislation and regulations on Occupational Safety and Health, as well as of the rules contained in the Contract and its Annexes on Safety and Health of the Enel Group, or if the Contractor, including, but not limited to, incur in one or more of the following circumstances, and the Contractor shall not have any right to indemnification due to this termination:

Due to the relevance that Occupational Safety and Health have for ENEL and the adoption of measures aimed at preventing accidents with its own personnel or of third parties related to its activity, this paragraph also applies in the case of any action or omission by the Contractor or any of its controlled companies, parent companies or companies subject to common control, in any other contractual relationship with ENEL or with any other Enel Group company that is capable of causing a serious or fatal accident to the professionals of the Contractor, of subcontractors, employees of any of the Enel Group companies or third parties during the development or performance of any such contractual relationship.

16.3.3 The occurrence of any of the situations below shall also constitute grounds for immediate termination of the Contract by ENEL, regardless of prior notification:

- a) suspension of the services by determination of the competent authority.
